There was a jolly party at Washington Hall, Capitol Hill, last night, on the occasion of the entertainment of Eureka Council, Sons of Jonadah. Although one of the youngest in the order, this melt has done such valiant work in the cause of total abstinence that it is now one of the most popular organizations on "The Hill." The first part of the enteriainment consisted of a musical and literary programme of well-known amateurs, the chief features of which were a plano solo by Miss Lillie Bender; a bright little Swiss air, charmingly sung, Miss Ids Seymour; recitation, Dr. Frank White; a waltz song, Miss Emma Levy, who possesses a sweet, clear, soprano voice; reading, Charles H. Babbitt; cornet solo, Professor James R. Gibon; song, Mr. Harry Mckelden; reading, "Buchanaus Nell;" Miss Cordelia Levy; Bute golo, H. F. Bart, and recitation, T. P. Southwick, Each of the numbers was well reached. At the conclusion of this se exercises the floor was cleared, and the terminder of the evening devoted to the tripping of the light fantaste. All present enjoyed themselves fully, and look forward to an early repetition of the esteriainment.

Jast year a number of race men told the writer that the National Fair Association track could be made the best running course in the country if proper care was taken with it, and from the manner in which it is now being carel for it is safe to say that at no distant day Wa-hington will be the possesor of the most magnificent and trustworthy race track in America.

Before the guests dispersed last evening a purse

AN IMPROMITU RACE.

Before the guests dispersed last evening a purse was raised of $200 for a mile dash between Bismarck, Clara, and St. Clair, three of the mest evenly matched horses in America. Hou, J. C. S. Blackburn was the judge, and Captain Frank Hollingshead the stater. The horses got off well together, Bismarck at the pole showing a glimpse of his nose in front of the others, but at the quarter the three were in a bunch. A blanket could have covered the horses for the next half mile, and the spectators were in a high state of excitement when hield came into the home strutch together, with all the jeckeys whipping. Clara forged ahead a little until she almost reached the distance fag, when St. Clair made a tremendous burst, and came under the wire a neck in front of Clara, with Bismarck on her hannehes. Time, 1475. The winner received $100, Clara $75, and Bamarck, $25, THE REGULAR SPRING MERTING.

ner received $100, Clara $75, and Bismarck, $25, will begin on May 16 and last three days. All the important stables will be present with their crucks, including Thora. Compensation, Glemmere, and others. The sale of the quarter-street badges will begin in a few days. Honceforth his track will be open to inspection, and no more pleasant a drive or walk can be had, with Freund's club-house to supply every want, either soll or liquid. Another reception will be held at the track on Saturday.
